

Pallikkutam, The Education Observer

Oct 2025

Edu-Policy Global

Global Policies Shaping Education

United States boosts mental health grants, Netherlands cuts education budget, Canada funds youth skills, Nigeria adds Mandarin, UK plans student grants return.

Pallikkutam Policy Updates – Global (October 2025 Edition)

This edition of Pallikkutam Policy Updates – Global brings you key education developments from around the world. Learn how the US is investing $270 million to revive mental health grants in schools, while the Netherlands faces protests over higher education budget cuts. Discover Canada's new $26.1 million initiative to boost youth skills and employment, and Nigeria's introduction of Mandarin as an international school subject. Finally, hear about England's plan to restore student maintenance grants for low-income learners.

Watch this episode to stay updated on global policies shaping education, opportunity, and student well-being.

Video: Pallikkutam Policy Update Global: US Support for Psychologists in Schools: Oct 2025