A life of guilt turned to global good. How Alfred Nobel's regret over dynamite birthed the world's greatest awards for peace, science, and humanity?

In this special episode of Pallikkutam Digest for Students, it narrates the extraordinary story of Alfred Nobel — the man whose moment of guilt transformed into humanity's greatest legacy. From the accidental obituary branding him the “merchant of death” to his visionary act of repentance that birthed the Nobel Prizes, the video journeys through Nobel's life of invention, reflection, and redemption. It also introduces the 2025 Nobel laureates whose work continues his mission to uplift mankind through science, peace, literature, and innovation. A story of conscience, courage, and civic sense that turned regret into global good.
